

Matching Game

Match the term on the left to the definition on the right. To learn more about these terms and PGE’s environmental work in the Deschutes Basin, visit: portlandgeneral.com/HealthyDeschutes.

- | | | |
|--|-------|---|
| 1. BIOLOGY | _____ | a. A barrier that holds back water. |
| 2. BULL TROUT | _____ | b. A raptor species native to Oregon. Can be recognized by its brown body and large wings. |
| 3. CHINOOK | _____ | c. Oregon’s oldest and largest electric company. |
| 4. DAM | _____ | d. The phase in a salmon’s life when it starts migrating from freshwater to the ocean. |
| 5. DESCHUTES | _____ | e. The study of living organisms, including plants and animals. |
| 6. FISH PASSAGE | _____ | f. Systems created to help fish migrate to and from the ocean, such as fish ladders. |
| 7. GOLDEN EAGLE | _____ | g. Electricity created using the power of water. |
| 8. HYDROPOWER | _____ | h. A salmon species that turns bright red with a greenish head during spawning season. |
| 9. OSPREY | _____ | i. The process of returning a species to an area where it once lived. |
| 10. PORTLAND
GENERAL ELECTRIC | _____ | j. A fish species native to Oregon that prefers cold water. A predator that likes to eat other small fish. It lives in Lake Billy Chinook. |
| 11. REINTRODUCTION | _____ | k. A trout species that acts like a salmon – it migrates to and from the ocean. |
| 12. SMOLT | _____ | l. One of Oregon’s great rivers. It flows from south to north and passes through Bend, Madras, Maupin, and The Dalles. |
| 13. SOCKEYE | _____ | m. The largest native salmon species in Oregon. |
| 14. STEELHEAD | _____ | n. A group of three Native American tribes who have lived in Central Oregon for many generations and help protect the Deschutes River and its wildlife. |
| 15. CONFEDERATED TRIBES
OF WARM SPRINGS | _____ | o. A hawk species found throughout Oregon. An excellent diver and fish-catcher. |